2. Break It Down: Section by Section Learning

The song can seem daunting as a whole. Divide it into smaller, manageable sections – a verse, the pre-chorus, the chorus, etc. Master each section before moving on to the next. Once you have a few sections down, start linking them together.

hesitate to simplify it. For example, you might play simpler chord voicings or omit certain embellishments. Conversely, if you're an advanced player, experiment with adding your own fills or reharmonizations to make the piece your own. The goal is to express the heart of the song, not just to hit every note on the page.
